

This piece is more or less the gaze into my own insanity, although the figure in the picture is female I based the facial features on my own face. I also find it reminiscent of some of my favorite artists such as Van Gogh and MC Echer in the aspects of lucid visuals and themes. I like to think of it as my magnum opus, but I'm sure I can do better. I would love the chance to show my art to the world and I hope you consider me.

A stylized, cursive handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'James J.' with a large, sweeping flourish at the end.
